

Position: Intern: Market Research Analyst

The candidate will be expected to have good communication skills in English, work in a team and work on the field and be very energetic. An enthusiasm to learn, the ability to rapidly overcome problems/setbacks/delays and the ability to co-ordinate with other members of the team and market globally.

Responsibilities:

- Develop innovative methods to validate market.
- Identify target market segments, estimate consumer demand and position products.
- Analyze market size and growth.
- Analyze market data, prepare reports and communicate findings.
- Recommend the company to help design product and provide analysis on approaching suitable market.
- Analyzing the price and competitiveness.

Education: Master of Business Administration: Specialization in Market Research.

Skills and Experience:

- 0 to 1 year of relevant experience in market segmentation, market research and or/analysis.
- Exposure to specific industry – wastewater treatment and management.
- Excellent written and verbal communication and interpersonal skills.
- Ability to work independently on several projects, organize and multitask.

How to Apply:

Send to info@openwater.in with the subject Market Research Analyst.

(i) one-page resume, (ii) A two-page description of projects carried out by you.

All attachments must not exceed 1.5 MB.

Apply before 1st March 2020